

Having trouble viewing this email? View a full-size email version.

No More Empty Pots has selected as a 2023 F.A.R.A. Community Partner. Supporting Quilts' Patch Mending Company joined as part of its community impact commitment, F.A.R.A.'s, Quilts' Patch is focused on championing the success of Black women and girls.

"Diversity and inclusivity has always been in abundance among Black women and girls. With this funding, the inspiring talent and creativity that has resulted generations of women and achievement will be matched with resources to intentionally amplify and bring to further their unique voices for innovation and connectivity," said Tracey Williams, NMED President/CEO.

Click here to learn about the ongoing leadership and professional development opportunities made possible by the F.A.R.A. & NMED.

Opportunity Highlight: 2023 Leadership Program

The Leadership Program is open to emerging women leaders in a variety of career disciplines and educational backgrounds in the Greater Omaha community. The program is a year-long commitment offering professional development and leadership growth activities including career exploration, job shadowing, mentoring, networking, and access to leadership through participation in a 6-month cohort. The 2023 Leadership Program is prioritized for Black women.

Leadership Program Interest Form

Learn More About the 2023 Cohort Here

Resources: No More Empty Pots is celebrating Lathia Edwards, Abbie Gurnea, Tanya Pinner and Lathia Carter (left to right) for producing Cohort 15 of the Leadership Cohort. Caption: Lathia Carter (left) and Lathia Carter (right) are the lead producers of the cohort. Through 12 weeks of training and working alongside our team to maximize their production.

Learn More About the Cohort

Learn More About the Cohort

With your community for many years, NMED is proud to be a part of the Good Days at the Bank of Omaha, we share their dedication to neighbors coming together to support our Greater Omaha community! All forms of engagement make a difference: your dollars, your time and your voice.

Join us in Building a Brighter Future

This year for the Good Days, NMED is focused on the future generation of entrepreneurs investing in local growth is the cornerstone to building a brighter future of more resilient communities and families. They found the energy to learn about the impact of youth programming in NMED made possible by supporters like you!

Learn More About NMED's Good Days

Learn More About NMED's Good Days

Job Posting Alert!

No More Empty Pots is searching the community for a Production Assistant (part or full time) to assist with preparing and packaging food items, recipe testing, packaging, packing and delivery responsibilities.

Click Here to Apply

Water was critical to the Community Organization of the Right to Water Omaha water system game on April 23rd at Western Park. Staff and supporters had a fun night watching water while enjoying community in each other. Click the title below to see the video video (streamed as part of our partnership together).

Watch our Water Game

NMED's Community Harvest Subscriptions of Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) offers 10 weeks of weekly harvest of seasonal local produce. Why grow your own and your choice of local add-on products like eggs, milk and yogurt delivered straight to your door!

Why Join a CSA through Community Harvest?

- To grow varieties of fresh, high-quality, and seasonal vegetables.
- Support NMED's mission of the local products.
- Grow your farmer and where your food comes from.
- Care about the environment and how your food is raised.

Click Here to Register for CSA

Click Here to Register for CSA

Copyright © 2023 No More Empty Pots, all rights reserved.

You are receiving this email because you indicated that you are interested in receiving updates from No More Empty Pots.

Our mailing address is:
No More Empty Pots
801 N. 28th St., Omaha, NE 68112

Unsubscribe or Manage My Preferences