ENTREPRENEURS SHINE DURING WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

Nebraska Enterprise Fund and No More Empty Pots brought together eleven female entrepreneurs to network, reflect and be inspired! The group of women participated in a Book Club that met on Saturday mornings at the Food Hub for five weeks to discuss their unique entrepreneurial pursuits. They read and worked through "Mind Your Business" by Liana Griffin, which focuses on how to turn a creative passion into a full-time gig. During the Book Club's meetings, the Cups Cafe was in full swing offering tasty coffee drinks to all!

The opportunity demonstrated the creativity, versatility and deep passion of our local entrepreneurial community. Everyone was fully engaged as they took turns listening and sharing with one another. For some of the women, participating in the Book Club was their first step toward learning how to make their dream into a viable business.

Support Entrepreneurship at No More Empty Pots!

MEYA'S SOUP TAKES HOME 1ST PLACE!

Congratulations to Chefs Meya Hill and Jo Anne Fraire of No More Empty Pots! Meya's Jamaican Pumpkin Soup was noted "Best Soup: Taste, Temp, & Texture" at the Shelter Across Associations's 25th Annual Art & Soup fundraiser on March 27. There were 18 entries by local restaurants and organizations voted on by professional chefs. Chefs Meya and Jo Anne were joined in soup production by their Culinary Certificate Program (CCP) students.

Apply for CCP by Monday, April 4

Led by Chefs Jo Anne Fraire and Meya Hill, the 8-week Culinary Certificate Program, provides hands-on and on-the-job culinary training.
- income-based tuition grants are available.
- CCP is accepted for college credit equivalency at Metropolitan Community College.

Submit a CCP application

THANK YOU TO HEALTHY BLUE

Healthy Blue Nebraska, a leading Medicaid managed care provider, donated a refrigerated transport vehicle to No More Empty Pots! Healthy Blue also provided an additional $25,000 to support innovative local food programming and education to help the community become more self-sufficient and economically resilient. Thank you, Healthy Blue!

Press Release

Apply for Food Support

INTRODUCING NEW LEADERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

No More Empty Pots was selected as a 2021 P.E.A.R.L. Pledge grant recipient. Developed by Quaker's Pearl Milling Company brand as part of its community impact commitment, P.E.A.R.L. Pledge is focused on championing the success of Black women and girls. Click here to learn more about P.E.A.R.L. Pledge and the other grant recipients!

Emerging Leaders Experience

- Emerging Leaders Fellowship: 12-month paid professional development and work experience opportunity. Accepting applications now!
- Leadership Program: A-month part-time cohort for local emerging leaders.
- Development Opportunities: Access to youth-centered leadership experiences, adult-centered professional development opportunities, resource navigation and funding.

Press Release

Leadership Opportunities

Introducing Do Good Days by SHARE Omaha

- Mark your calendars for May 17-19, 2022.
- Do Good Days is the perfect time to get engaged!
- All forms of engagement make a difference: your dollars, your time and your voice.

Get Involved with No More Empty Pots

NEW JOB POSTINGS

No More Empty Pots is searching the community for candidates to fill 3 open positions on our team! We are committed to valuing and supporting our employees who do the work every day of serving our community.

Help Spread the Word

- Entrepreneur Team Assistant (Full Time): Support the Entrepreneur Team with direct services, program delivery and special events including the reopening of the cafe.
- Production Assistant (Part/Full Time): Assist with preparing and producing food menu items, recipe testing, packaging, packing and delivery preparation.
- Emerging Leaders Fellowship (Full Time, 12 Months): Participate and help coordinate Leadership Program, support launch of a major public initiative, and general marketing and engagement.

Full Job Descriptions

Women's Book Club

Nebraska Enterprise Fund will host its 2nd Book Club for women following along to the book "Mind Your Business" by Liana Griffin at NMEP's Food Hub. Sessions will begin on Saturday, April 9, and last 5 weeks.

Register for the Book Club!

Coffee & Connections

Join Nebraska Enterprise Fund every 4th Thursday of the month through December for this monthly event hosted at the No More Empty Pots' Cups Cafe. Meet, greet and get connected while enjoying pastries and coffee!

Save the Date for April 28

CLICK HERE TO DONATE!

Follow No More Empty Pots