Aniyah, a fourth grader, enjoys nature, especially plants and bugs, and watching TikTok channels about her favorite school subjects including math, science, and more and, meeting the bees to care for her dog and hopes someday soon to start a watermelon garden!

This year, No More Empty Pots is partnering with Howard Kennedy Elementary, Florence Elementary, and Avenue Road for after school programming that teaches hands-on lessons in gardening, agriculture, nutrition and cooking. Aniyah is like so many other students enrolled in these programs, she is enthusiastic about science who is intelligent beyond her years, thrives in school, and loves to keep learning more outside the classroom. Aniyah is already dreaming about the future career possibilities in the STEM field.

Your support creates an engaging learning environment for future leaders like Aniyah. Thank you for making the future brighter for all of us!
